

Google is hiring!

Apply now for our Data Center Technician role

Who? Upcoming graduates pursuing an Associate's degree, trade school certification, or other verifiable training in a relevant technical field by Summer 2019.

Learn About Our Hiring Locations: Pryor, OK; Council Bluffs, IA; Clarksville, TN; Bridgeport, AL.

What Does a Data Center Technician Do?

Data Center Technicians are responsible for deploying, monitoring, and maintaining the state-of-the-art physical infrastructure behind Google's powerful technology. You will work within the Hardware Operations team to troubleshoot complex issues, test and upgrade new server hardware components, and help keep Google networks up and running!

Still curious? We've got you covered:

- Job Description
- Inside a Google Data Center
- Google Data Center 360° Tour
- Take a Walk Through a Data Center

Create
Design
Code
Build for everyone

Hiring Process:

- 1st stage: 1-2 phone interviews
- 2nd stage: Round of onsite interviews at local data center

Interviewing Tips:

- Tips for Interviewing
- Q&A: Getting Into Google

Apply Here!

- Data Center, University Graduate